The Life of Christ

In this brief chronological study of the life of Jesus, we will bust myths, observe recurring themes, and learn more about our wonderful Redeemer and Lord. The story of Jesus is the fulfillment of the Old Testament and the foundation for the New. We will study with the intention of being able to tell the story better.

Acts: Learning from the Early Church

Join us as we study through the book of Acts, learning from the first-century church about evangelism, fellowship, the Holy Spirit, and living by faith, and then challenging each other to live out a response to the examples we find. The teachers of the class rotate each week, with a short talk followed by discussion groups.

Out of Egypt...Into a Relationship with God

Exodus tells the story of Israel's liberation from Egyptian bondage and its beginning as a nation. It also tells of the covenant God made with Israel to help them live meaningful, committed, responsible lives. Their freedom was the opportunity to become what God intended for mankind from the beginning. This is not just a story of the long-gone past, but an example of human freedom, divine mercy, and responsible community for believers today.

Faith Series

This video/discussion series is designed to encourage Christians to see the relevance of Scripture by using various lessons presented in biblical geographic and historical locations. Knowledge of the cultural significance of the time in which Scripture was written will be explored, providing greater insights and allowing it to “come alive” for the reader.
